

April 17, 2009

People in Business

The Clarion-Ledger

Marketing Alliance

- Porter Foster has been promoted to Web and interactive designer. He previously served as art director. Foster has bachelor's degrees in graphic design and biology from Delta State University.

Cabot Lodge Jackson North

- Layla Carpenter has been named director of sales. She has six years of experience in business development. She has a bachelor's degree in communications from Mississippi State University.

Mississippi Association of Supervisors

- Derrick Surette has been named executive director. He received undergraduate and graduate degrees at Mississippi State University.

Ameristar Casino

- Dominic Bardos has been named vice president of finance. With 20 years of experience, he has bachelor's and master's degrees from Memphis State University.
-