

Illegal gaming operation shut down

Monday, May 11, 2009 10:59 AM CDT

The Leflore County Sheriff's Department has shut down another illegal gaming operation.

Deputies raided the Umoja Market, 5160 U.S. 49 S., Satur

Roger "Cricket" Crigler, 56, 2310 Carrollton Ave., was arre machines.

He was released on bond.

It is the latest in a series of arrests for unauthorized slot m

The state attorney general's office raided the Morgan City Owners Charles "Bo" Branch, 67, and his wife, Carolyn Bra of illegal gaming operations and one count of possession o

Also in March, the Sheriff's Department arrested Shelia Wi illegal gaming machines.

A month before, deputies had arrested Carole Brodofsky, 5 gaming machines.

The Sheriff's Department also found nine video poker machines in a mobile home on County Road 2 near the George Brancy Moody, 58, and Christopher M. Waldrop, 33, were arrested in that case.